It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

PREFACE.

---

In the preparation of the article on "The John Rogers Families of Plymouth and Vicinity," I gathered many facts in relation to the family of John Rogers of Marshfield. Correspondence with Miss RHODA B. ELLIS, a descendant, developed the fact that she had material of the same character, gathered partly from the Scituate Friends' records, which I had never examined. These materials seemed worth preserving by publication; and it was concluded to publish them (with additions furnished by Miss ELLIS or obtained from records of wills and deeds) under the title of "Some Materials for a Genealogy of John Rogers of Marshfield."

We contemplated a small pamphlet of some forty pages. But when our design became known other descendants desired Miss ELLIS to enlarge the work, offering to aid in furnishing material and in other ways. We acceded to these requests, and the consequence is that the pamphlet has grown to nearly five times its contemplated size.

While very many have aided in the collection of material, I am under special obligation to Charles C. Whittier, Esq., 40 Dartmouth Street, Boston, and to Col. Hiram A. Oakman of North Marshfield, for results of examination of public and family records; and to Miss Minnie K. Bachelder, of the Probate Office, at Plymouth, for skillful examination of probate records, and accurate reports thereon.

The arrangement may be easily understood. Those of the Rogers name are numbered consecutively in figures; those of other names, by families, with letters; the Roman capitals denote the generation, as does the small figure with the name; when the surname is given, I use the generation figure with that, as in that manner it is more easily read and understood; in giving the line, in parenthesis, the name ROGERS, as a surname, is to be supplied, except when small capitals are used, and they denote another surname.

The sign — denotes that the party died without issue; + denotes that the name is carried forward in its regular order; † denotes that the name is carried down on the same page; and = denotes that the party is unmarried; when names are not marked, nothing further in relation to them is given.

JOHN ROGERS OF MARSHFIELD.

I. JOHN ROGERS' of Marshfield.

Neither the date or place of his birth, nor the time when he came to this country has been ascertained.

John Rogers, aged thirty-four, came from London to Barbadoes in the Falcon, in April, 1635; and John Rogers, aged eighteen, came to Barbadoes from London in the same vessel, Dec. 19, 1635. 2 Brown's Gen. p. 1131.

These ages suit John of Marshfield and John of Duxbury, but the former must have been married at that date and no mention is made of his wife.

It has been said that John of Marshfield was a relative of Rev. William Witherell and came to this country with him. In 1635, William Witherell of Maidstone, Schoolmaster, Mary, his wife, three children and one servant came in the Hercules; the certificate is dated March 14, 1634/5. Founders of New England, pp 82, 83.

No Rogers is named in the list; it is possible that John Rogers was the "servant," but his wife and child are not accounted for. There was a tradition that the mother of Mr. Witherell was a daughter of John Rogers the Martyr, and the inference has been drawn that the father of John of Marshfield was a brother of Witherell's mother. But the tradition is, at least, doubtful, for the Martyr suffered in 1555 and William Witherell was born in 1600, when the youngest child of the Martyr was over forty-five years old.

Deane says that John Rogers came to Scituate in 1644, but this is erroneous, for the name of John Rogers is given in the 1643 list of freemen of Scituate, although the date of his admission has not been found.

On September 20, 1699, John Rogers<sup>2</sup>, the son of John Rogers<sup>1</sup> of Marshfield, gave a deposition before the Justices of the Court at Plymouth, that, in or about the year 1647, his father, John Rogers, lived in Scituate on a lot of land between the land of Thomas Hicks and the land of John Stockbridge, adjoining Hicks's swamp; and about the year 1647, "my father John Rogers aforesaid, being about to move out of said Scituate" (in effect) sold his house and land to Thomas Simons, "and my father removed out of Scituate about the time aforesaid, and I lived with him many years and never heard him lay any claim to said land after he removed from it." Plym. Deeds, Bk. III, p. 144.

This fixes 1647 as about the date of his father's removal into Marshfield, where he continued to reside till his death in the early part of 1661. He was fined (as appears by the town records) for not attending town meeting, Dec. 11, 1649, May 15, 1651, Aug. 23, 1652, Nov. 8, 1652, and Mar. 28, 1653.

The family name of his wife, Frances, has not been discovered, nor the date of their marriage. Their son, John, was born in 1632 or 1633, in all human probability before they left England.

Miss Thomas, in her history of Marshfield, suggests that Frances Rogers was Frances [Vassal] Adams, daughter of William Vassal and widow of James Adams; but Frances Vassal was not married till July 16, 1646, and did not become a widow till Jan. 6, 1651, when Frances Rogers had grown up children.

DAVIS, in his "Landmarks of Plymouth," under John

Rogers of Marshfield, says "by wife Frances, perhaps daughter of Robert Watson," &c.: also, Robert Watson came to Plymouth early, but finally settled in Connecticut; by wife Elizabeth, he had, born in England, George, 1603, Robert, Samuel, and perhaps Frances, who married John Rogers. No authority for this statement has been found; but if Robert Watson had a daughter, Frances, who married a John Rogers, there can be scarcely a doubt that he was John Rogers<sup>1</sup> of Marshfield.

Frances survived her husband, and married Walter Briggs of Scituate. In his will d. Jan'y 16, 1676/7, p. June 4, 1684, Walter Briggs mentions, among others, his wife, Frances. Deeds, Vol. VI, p. 9.

Administration on the estate of Frances Briggs, widow, of Scituate, was granted Oct. 14, 1687, to her sons, John and Joseph Rogers. Probate, Vol. I, p. 11.

John Rogers<sup>1</sup> died about May, 1661, and his widow in 1687.

II. Children, part probably born in England, and the others in Scituate:

- + 2. John<sup>2</sup>, b. about 1632.
- + 3. Joseph<sup>2</sup>,
- + 4. Timothy<sup>2</sup>,
- + 5. Ann<sup>2</sup>,
- + 6. Mary<sup>2</sup>,
- + 7. Abigail<sup>2</sup>,

These are given in the order named in the will d. Feb. 1, 1660 (O. S.) p. June 5, 1661, which mentions wife, Frances; children, John Rogers, Jr.; Joseph Rogers; Timothy Rogers; Ann Hudson; Mary Rogers and Abigail Rogers; his grandchildren, ~~Posy~~ Russell and John Russell.

William Witherell acknowledged June 23, 1665, that he sold "to John Rogers, Sen. of Marshfield, now deceased," "ten acres of upland laying at N. W. side of Nemassakeetpit brook." Dux. Rec. p. 12.

William Brett "of Bridgewater, sometime of Duxbury," made oath June 3, 1665, that some years past he sold to "John Rogers of Marshfield, now deceased," all his lands, meadow and upland "lying in Matakesit which was given to me by the town." Dux. Rec. p. 11.

John, Timothy and Joseph Rogers were Freemen in 1684.

2.

III. JOHN ROGERS<sup>2</sup> (John<sup>1</sup>) was born about 1632, probably before his father came to this country: he married, October 8, 1656, Rhoda King, daughter of Elder Thomas King of Scituate, born October 11, 1639; she died about 1662, and he married, about 1663, Elizabeth —: she died September 13, 1692: he married Elizabeth —: she died May 9, 1705: he died May 7, 1717, in his eighty-fifth year, according to the church record, which date however is not consistent with the date of his will and the probate of it.

Children, born in Marshfield:

By first wife:

- + 8. John<sup>3</sup>, bap. Aug. 23, 1657.
- + 9. Thomas<sup>3</sup>, b. Dec. 25, 1659; bap. Mar. 25, 1660.
- 9a. Rhoda<sup>3</sup>, bap. Aug. 3, 1662; died young.

By second wife:

- + 10. Abigail<sup>3</sup>, b. Nov. 3, 1663.
- + 11. Mary<sup>3</sup>, b. Mar. 10, 1665; bap. April 16, 1665.
- + 12. Johanna<sup>3</sup>, b. Oct. 7, 1667.
- + 13. Elizabeth<sup>3</sup>, b. May 19, 1669.

The dates of births are taken from the Friends' records, in which the months are given as first, second, &c., instead of by name. Transcripts have been made in which the names of the months have been given, but erroneously, for January was taken as the first month, instead of March, and so on.

The baptisms are taken from Rev. Mr. Witherell's records, part of which have been preserved.

John<sup>s</sup> joined the Quakers in 1660, Deane says, but probably a little earlier, for John<sup>s</sup> was baptized in 1657, by Mr. Witherell, while Thomas<sup>s</sup> born in 1659, and Rhoda<sup>s</sup> born in 1661 or 1662, were baptized on the account of their mother, Rhoda, who had evidently continued to adhere to Mr. Witherell's church. Apparently his second wife, Elizabeth, was also a member of that church, for the record of the baptism of her daughter is "Mary, ye daughter of Elizabeth Rogers."

The Friends' records commence in 1680, but a large number of births, which occurred before that date, were entered; among them all the children of John<sup>s</sup>, except John<sup>s</sup> and Rhoda<sup>s</sup>.

He took the oath of freeman in 1657, and is often mentioned in the public records for nearly sixty years after that date.

On the Friends' records (Scituate) is the following:

"Sufferings of John Rogers of Marshfield. 27 day of 2 mo. 1681, came the constable Joseph Waterman to my house and brought two men with him and brought a warrant with him which he said came from the magistrate John Alden. The constable could not read it nor any that were with him, it was so blotted: and the constable demanded of me 01-04-02, which he said was rates to the priest, Samuel Niles of Marshfield, the which I could not pay for conscience sake. Whereupon the constable seized upon a steare of two years old and took him away from me. John Rogers of Marshfield."

Those records have many similar entries among them, one by John Rogers<sup>s</sup> of Scituate, dated 26 of 3 mo. 1683, in which he says that the constable took away "two platters and two porringers which they prized at 11 shillings."

On May 16, 1659, John Rogers, Jun., was chosen grand juryman by the town.

In 1692, John<sup>s</sup> was one of the Selectmen of Marshfield and assisted in running the line between that town and "the Two Miles in Scituate."

On June 16, 1692, he was on a jury "to lay out and remove highways" in Marshfield; in their return they describe a way, which ran near the houses of the three brothers:

"And in the new way which said Rogers [John<sup>s</sup>] lately made and so on over the cove creek by his house and so along by French's tinnament and Henry Perry's house to the upper end of the field before said Perry's door; and then turning southward along by the land of Thomas King and John Silvester's lot and so till it meet the Scituate way. And also by the cove creek downward as the old way leadeth by the house of Timothy Rogers and up the hill by his house, and so as the new way now lieth near to Joseph Rogers' fence and so on to the line of Elisha Bisbee."

On August 30, 1692, on the request of her husband it was voted by "The Meeting" to hold meetings once a month at the house of Elizabeth Rogers on account of her illness. She died two weeks later.

He and his third wife, Elizabeth, signed, May 11, 1699. the certificate of the marriage of his daughter, Elizabeth, at Friends' meeting, after their manner.

In a deposition given June 16, 1713, John<sup>2</sup> says that he was seventy-nine years old or thereabouts.

In his will d. May 9, 1718, p. June 24, 1718, he describes himself as "aged"; mentions his son, John, to whom he gives the three hundred pounds "which he hath already received of me in money and three score pounds more"; gives legacies to his daughter, Abigail Chamberling; his daughter, Joanna Butler; his grandson, Samuel Dogged; his granddaughter, Mary White, and his granddaughter, Sarah Allyn; the residue he gives to his son, Thomas.

Thomas King, in his will dated in 1691, gives legacies to his two grandsons, John and Thomas Rogers.

Mr. Witherell has, among records of baptisms, "1657 John, ye son<sup>ne</sup> of John Rogers jun. August 23," "Rhoda, ye daughter of Rhoda Rogers, Aug. 30, 1662."

In 1708, the Friends' "Women's Meetings" were held at the houses of John Rogers of Marshfield, Edward Wanton of Scituate, and Robert Barker and Arthur Howland of Duxborough now Pembroke.

3.

III. JOSEPH ROGERS<sup>2</sup> (John<sup>1</sup>). It is not known when or where he was born, but either before his father came to this country or in Scituate; he married Abigail Barker, daughter of Robert and Lucy [Williams] Barker of Hingham (according to the history of that town), but certainly of Duxbury at one time; Joseph<sup>2</sup> lived in Duxbury close to the Marshfield line and in that part which became Pembroke; he died in 1716, about June, and she, in 1718, about May.

Children, born in that part of Duxbury which became Pembroke:

- + 14. Joseph<sup>s</sup>, b.
- + 15. John<sup>s</sup>, b.
- + 16. Timothy<sup>s</sup>, b.
- 17. Thomas<sup>s</sup>: apparently died without issue.
- 18. Moses<sup>s</sup>: died unmarried.
- 19. Lydia<sup>s</sup>: apparently died unmarried.
- + 20. Rebecca<sup>s</sup>, b.
- + 21. Abigail<sup>s</sup>, b.
- 22. Francis<sup>s</sup>: apparently died without issue.

Marshfield, on July 4, 1670, gave to Joseph Rogers, Sen., of Duxbury, its interest in a certain parcel of land (four or five acres) at Mattachesitt. Town Rec. p. 124.

The will of Joseph Rogers of Pembroke, d. Apr. 10, 1716, and p. July 16, 1716, describes him as "aged"; gives to Joseph, his oldest son, his meadow in Marshfield; to his wife, Abigail, land at a place called the cove in Marshfield, his home farm, (except a small lot given to his son, John Rogers), his stock, &c., and other real estate; gives a lot to his son, Thomas, and ten acres to his son, Timothy, lying near that which he already has; to his daughters, Lydiah and Rebecca, twenty pounds apiece; to the children of his daughter, Abigail Parrice, deceased, fifty shillings each; and to his grandson, commonly called Joseph Staples, five pounds. He left the care of his son, Francis, to his wife, and after her death to be maintained by the children to whom his wife should leave the real estate.

He left the bulk of his estate to his wife to be disposed of to his children as she should deem most convenient, but it was his will that if his two sons, John and Thomas "do behave themselves kind and obligeing to their mother during her life, that after her decease all my said housing and lands, meadow and swamp, lying in Pembroke aforesaid shall be left to them." He appointed his wife executrix with his trusty and well-beloved brothers, John Rogers, Francis Barker and Robert Barker, overseers.

Abigail Rogers of Pembroke, "widow and relick" of Joseph Rogers late of said Pembroke, deceased, in her will d. April 19, 1718, p. June 20, 1718, gives all her lands, &c., in Pembroke, to her son, John Rogers; thirty pounds and her best bed and its furnishings to her daughter, Lydia Rogers; one horse and heifer, to her grandson, commonly called Joseph Staples; one heifer, to her granddaughter, Mercy Parris, to be paid when she becomes of age; and the remainder of her movable estate to be equally divided between her sons, Joseph Rogers, Timothy Rogers, her daughters, Rebecca Andrews and Lydia Rogers, and the children of her daughter, Abigail Parris, deceased. She made John Rogers, executor.

Moses<sup>3</sup> died in 1707, in his father's lifetime. Being about to join the troops at Port Royal in the French and Indian War, he undertook to make a will which is described to be "most peculiarly worded, badly written and awkwardly executed." In a protest against its being probated it is called "a scrool." It is dated April 12, 1707; the witnesses were examined in relation to it September 1, 1707, and October 24, 1707; one was his brother, Timothy, one his sister, Lydia, and the other, James Hunter, understood to be an Indian. He gave legacies to his father, Joseph Rogers, his brother, Joseph Rogers, and to his mother, not naming her. A protest was filed against its allowance by Thomas Parris of Duxbury, and Abigail, his wife, sister of said Moses. The will was recorded, but there is no record showing that it was admitted to probate.

Joseph Rogers of Duxbury conveyed, Jan'y 27, 1706/7, to his son, Moses Rogers of Marshfield, about six acres of land in Marshfield, being same land owned by John Rogers of Marshfield deceased and lying between land of John Rogers deceased, and Samuel Niles and Timothy Rogers and "next to land I sold my son, Joseph Rogers." Deeds B. VII, p. 159.

Francis<sup>3</sup> was evidently laboring under some disability and as neither he nor Thomas, nor any child of either, is named in their mother's will it is quite certain that both died, without issue, between the dates of their father's and their mother's wills.

Robert Barker, whose children were Francis, Isaac, Robert, Rebecca and Abigail, in his will d. Feb'y 18, 1689, mentions his daughter, Abigail Rogers.

We have ascertained nothing in relation to the parentage or history of Joseph Staples.

Joseph and Abigail Rogers conveyed, May 3, 1677, to John Rogers, Sen. of Marshfield, meadow land at Jones's river. Deeds B. I, p. 220.

Joseph Rogers of Duxborough conveyed Sept. 5, 1699, to John Rogers Jr. of Marshfield, twenty acres of land in M. bounded East by the common land, west by land of said Joseph Rogers, south by land of said John Rogers that he had of his father, Timothy Rogers. B. IV, p. 51.

Joseph Rogers of Duxbury conveyed, Jan'y 24, 1706/7, to his son, Timothy Rogers of D., thirty acres of land in D. part of what he bought of James Ford of Marshfield, June 29, 1705, bounded on Hobbamock and Little Ponds; deed witnessed by Rebecca Rogers, his daughter, and Thomas Parris, his son-in-law. B. VIII, p. 87.

Deeds Joseph Rogers of Mattapoisett in Duxbury to Michael Ford, June 19, 1705: Joseph Rogers of Duxbury to John Rogers of Marshfield, Jan'y 15, 1711: and Joseph Rogers of Pembroke to Abram Booth, April 16, 1712. B. IX, pp. 231, 158. 371.

4.

III. TIMOTHY ROGERS<sup>2</sup>, (John<sup>1</sup>) was probably born in Scituate; he married Eunice Stetson, daughter of "Cornet" Robert Stetson, born April 23, 1650; he died in 1728, having survived his wife.

Children, born in Marshfield:

- + 23. Timothy<sup>3</sup>, b. in 1690, according to age on gravestone.
- + 24. Samuel<sup>3</sup>, bap. Sept. 15 [or 18], 1670.
- + 25. John<sup>3</sup>,
- 26. Bethiah<sup>3</sup>; probably died unmarried.
- + 27. Honour<sup>3</sup>,
- + 28. Eunice<sup>3</sup>, bap. Oct. 2, 1677.
- + 29. Mary<sup>3</sup>,
- + 30. Hannah<sup>3</sup>,

These are the children named in the will, given in the order first therein named. In another part of his will he names his daughters in the following order, probably the order of their births, viz: Eunice, Bethiah, Hannah, Mary and Honour. The baptisms are taken from Rev. Mr. Witherell's records, which show there were two other children :

- 30a. —, a daughter, bap. Aug. 27, 1671; d. young.
- 30b. Timothy<sup>3</sup>, bap. May 31, 1674; d. young.

The name of this daughter cannot be deciphered; it is a name of apparently three or four letters; at the time it was written Mr. W. was a paralytic.

Cornet Robert Stetson in his will d. Sept. 4, 1702, p. Mar. 5, 1702/3, mentions his daughter, Eunice Rogers, then living.

Timothy Rogers<sup>2</sup> was admitted a townsman of Marshfield Feb'y 14, 1664/5; witnessed a Friend's marriage certificate in 1678; was freed from bearing arms on account of lameness in 1681; administered upon the estate of Nathaniel Parker in 1690; is mentioned in the laying out of a road (apparently near Rogers Brook) in 1692; and on March 29, 1699, gave to his son, John Rogers<sup>3</sup> of Marshfield, "Land in Marshfield where I now dwell, about 40 acres, bounded by land of my brother, Joseph Rogers," &c. B. IV, p. 50.

Apparently the line between his land and that of his brother, Joseph, was the line between Marshfield and Duxbury.

The will of Timothy Rogers of Marshfield, "Taylor," d. Mar. 24, 1724/5, p. Aug. 5, 1728, mentions sons, Samuel and John; daughter, Bethiah Rogers, then unmarried and living with him; and daughters, Hannah Torrey, Eunice Witherel, Mary Carver, and Hannah Lapham; granddaughter, Judith Rogers, wife of Joseph Rogers; son-in-law, William Torrey; and son, Timothy, to whom he gives the bulk of his property, and whom he makes executor of his will.

5.

III. ANN ROGERS<sup>2</sup> (John<sup>1</sup>) was probably born in Scituate; she married (1) George Russell, probably son of George Russell; he died before 1659; she married (2) John Hudson, who died about 1688, leaving her surviving him.

Children, born in Marshfield:

By first husband:

- i. George Russell<sup>3</sup>.
- ii. John Russell<sup>3</sup>; apparently died young.

By second husband :

- iii. Hannah Hudson<sup>3</sup>, m. Japhet Turner.
- iv. Rhoda Hudson<sup>3</sup>, m. — Palmer.
- v. Elizabeth Hudson<sup>3</sup>, m. — Vickery (Vicory).
- vi. Abigail Hudson<sup>3</sup>, m. — Stetson.

"Posy" and John Russell are mentioned in the will of their grandfather, John Rogers<sup>1</sup>.

In an agreement dated July 2, 1673, between John and Ann Hudson, on the one part, and George Russell (the "Posy" of the will) on the other part, it is recited that Ann had been the "former wife of George Russell deceased," and George was their eldest son.

John and Ann Hudson, Feb'y 4, 1674, gave to John Rogers a receipt for the legacies to Ann given to her in the will of her father, John Rogers, late of Marshfield, deceased; the receipt is witnessed by Joseph Rogers and George Russell.

John Hudson's will (Nov. 20, 1683) gives all his property to his wife, Ann Hudson.

III. MARY ROGERS<sup>2</sup> (John<sup>1</sup>). married Nathaniel Fox 3 m. 8 25-4

Miss Thomas, in her "Memorials of Marshfield," gives a brief account of John Rouse. She says that John Rouse, Jr., born in 1643, married Mary Rogers in 1656 and died in 1711; there are errors in some of these dates, probably clerical; the inscription on his tomb gives the date of his death as 1717, and his age makes 1643 the date of his birth; he was therefore only thirteen in 1656, and that date is erroneous, probably intended for 1666. So far as I can discover, John Rouse, Jr., was son of the John Rouse who was a servant of Gov. Prence, and after completing his term of service with the one to whom he was transferred with the consent of all interested, married Anna Pabodie, received grants of land, and is easily traced in the records till his death in 1684.

The History of Duxbury says that a John Rouse married Mary Rogers in 1659, but this date certainly seems to be erroneous, or the name was "Rane," not "Rouse."

Miss Thomas undoubtedly had authority for her statement that John Rouse, Jr., married Mary Rogers. If so, the Mary Rogers must have been this daughter of John<sup>1</sup>; she was single in 1660; and upon the authority of Miss Thomas, I conclude that she married John Rouse, Jr., in 1666; that she died soon after without issue; and that he married, January 13, 1674/5, Elizabeth Doty, and died October 3, 1717, leaving no issue, his only son having died in 1704.

7.

III. ABIGAIL ROGERS<sup>2</sup> (John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Scituate about 1645; she married, January 1, 1678/9, Timothy White, son of Edwin and Elizabeth [Ward] White; he died in 1704, leaving her surviving:

Children, born in Scituate:

- i. Timothy White<sup>3</sup>, b. in 1679.
- ii. Abigail White<sup>3</sup>, b. in 1682.
- iii. Sarah White<sup>3</sup>, b. in 1685; married Joseph Tilden.
- iv. Elizabeth White<sup>3</sup>, b. in 1688; m. James Cudworth.

His will d. May 16, 1704, p. Sept. 22, 1704, mentions wife, Abigail; children, Timothy, Abigail White, Sarah White and Elizabeth White; son Timothy, Exr.

He gives to his daughters, land at Drinkwater, "formerly the land of Cornett Robert Stetson, but now in my possession."

8.

IV. JOHN ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield in 1657, [baptized Aug. 23, 1657]; he was twice married, but neither the name of his first wife nor the date of their marriage, nor the surname of his second wife, is known; the Scituate record of his family says, "John Rogers and Hannah his wife were married September 14, 1701"; he died between March 1 and July 18, 1738, leaving her surviving.

Children, born in Scituate:

By first wife :

- + 31. John<sup>t</sup>, b. Mar. 14, 1682/3.
- + 32. Alice<sup>t</sup>, b. Mar. 26, 1685.
- 33. Daniel<sup>t</sup>, b. Mar. 31, 1688; d. young.
- 34. Elizabeth<sup>t</sup>, b. Oct. —, 1691.
- 35. Thomas<sup>t</sup>, b. Aug. 15, 1695.

By second wife :

- 36. Hannah<sup>t</sup>, b. May 26, 1704.
- + 37. Joshua<sup>t</sup>, b. April 22, 1708.
- 38. Mary<sup>t</sup>, b. April 15, 1712.
- + 39. Caleb<sup>t</sup>, b. April 14, 1718.

His will d. Mar. 1, 1737/8, p. July 18, 1738, describes himself as of Scituate, a shipwright, "aged and under infirmity of body"; directs that his wife shall be supported out of his estate by his executor; gives his son, John, ten shillings, "having given him considerable formerly"; to his grandchildren, the children of his daughter, "Else," [Alice] who married Thomas Clark, "twenty pounds in bills of credit of ye old Tenor, or silver equivalent thereto, one ounce of silver being reconed equal to twenty-seven shillings of said bills"; and legacies to his daughter, Hannah Thrift; to the children of his daughter, Elizabeth deceased; to the son of his son, Thomas, deceased; to his daughter, Mary Staples; to his son, Caleb Rogers; and to his son, Joshua Rogers, whom he appoints executor and to whom he gives "the farm and land where I now dwell in Scituate" and all his other property, but charging upon it the support of his wife "his [Joshua's] mother" and the payment of the legacies, except Caleb's, which was real estate.

John Rogers of Scituate, shipwright, acknowledges "to have received of Thomas Rogers of Marshfield, Executor of the last will and testament of my then father, John Rogers late of Marshfield, aforesaid, the full and just sum of three hundred pounds in money in full for ye legacy given me in ye last will and testament of the said John Rogers." Signed John Rogers, Jr., and acknowledged at Plymouth, Dec. 23, 1728, before Jona. Cushing, Justice of the Peace.

Elizabeth<sup>4</sup>, as appears by the will of her father, married and had children, but the name of her husband has not been found.

Thomas<sup>4</sup> also married, had one son and died before March 1, 1737, the date of his father's will.

Hannah<sup>4</sup>. I have had doubts in relation to the name "Hannah Thrift" in the record of the will, for on Nov. 7, 1726, William Swift of Portsmouth and Hannah Rogers of Scituate lay their intentions of marriage before "the meeting" and a committee was appointed to "inquire into their character in this respect." But perhaps the report was unfavorable, for nothing further is found on the Friends' records. Moreover there was a William Thrift in Scituate, who had a daughter, Hannah, (probably named for her mother) born in 1732, who married John Gaynes of Boston, in 1759, and a daughter, Mary, who married Jabez Stanley in 1760. The will of Joanna Butler also has the name of Hannah Thrift.

Mary<sup>4</sup> married Joshua Staples, Oct. 21, 1731.

9.

IV. THOMAS ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, December 25, 1659, according to the Friends' records, but December 2, 1659, according to the town records; he married, June 6, 1712, Bethiah Ewell, daughter of Gershom and Mary Ewell, born March 3, 1682/3; he died March 6, 1745/6, and she, January 23, 1756.

Children, born in Marshfield.

- + 40. Rhoda<sup>4</sup>, b. May 28, 1713.
- + 41. John<sup>4</sup>, b. Dec. 19, 1714.
- + 42. Thomas<sup>4</sup>, b. Oct. 28, 1716.
- + 43. Bethiah<sup>4</sup>, b. Sept. 29, 1718.

They were married in Friends' Meeting after the manner of that sect; but according to the town records they were also married on the same day by Joseph Otis.

The will of Gershom Ewell, p. March 19, 1717/18, mentions his daughter, Bethiah Rogers.

Will of Thomas Rogers of Marshfield, d. Sept. 10, 1745, p. Mar. 12, 1745/6, mentions wife, Bethiah; children, Rhoda Wing, Bethiah Wadee and John and Thomas who were Ex'ors. Vol. X, p. 139.

Will of Bethiah Rogers, relict of Thomas Rogers of Marshfield, d. June 10, 1755, p. May 4, 1756, mentions sons, Thomas and John; daughters, Rhoda Wing and Bethiah Wady; granddaughter, Rhoda Wing; and son-in-law, Benjamin Wing, Ex'or. Bristol Co. Vol. XV, p. 28.

Gershom Ewell, born Nov. 14, 1650, was the son of Henry Ewell, who married, Nov. 22, 1638, Sarah, the daughter of Anthony and Sarah Annable. Henry came over in the Hercules in 1635, with Rev. William Witherell; he was a soldier in the Pequod war in 1637.

10.

IV. ABIGAIL ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, November 3, 1663; she married, September 9, 1681, Nathaniel Chamberlain, probably son of Henry, born in Hull, September 4, 1659; he died in Pembroke in 1716, leaving her surviving.

Children, born in Marshfield:

- i. Elizabeth Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, b. June 18, 1682.
- ii. Nathaniel Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, b. Aug. 10 [13], 1683.
- iii. John Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, b. Dec. 26, 1684.
- iv. Mary Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, b. Feb'y 5, 1685/6.
- v. Johanna Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, b. Jan'y 17, 1686/7.
- vi. Abigail Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, b. Feb'y 28, 1687/8.
- vii. Sarah Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, b. Ap'l 8, 1689; d. Sept. 2, 1689.
- viii. Patience Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, b. Ap'l 28, 1690.

These are taken from the Scituate Friends' records; at a meeting August 31, 1690, the record states, that Nathaniel Chamberlain "being about to remove to Hull," &c.; he did remove there and we find on the Hull records the names of the foregoing children, and of four others, born in Hull, as follows:

- ix. Bathsheba Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, b. June 28, 1692.
- x. Experience Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, b. June 28, 1692.

xi. Ruth Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, b. Dec. 1, 1693.

xii. Thomas Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, b. May 21, 1695.

About 1695 he removed to Scituate and had other children, born there as follows:

xiii. Freedom Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, b. in 1697.

xiv. Eunice Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, b. in 1698.

xv. Joseph Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, b. in 1699.

It also appears from the Probate Records, that there was another son, xvi. Benjamin Chamberlain<sup>4</sup>, probably born in 1700, but possibly in 1696.

In 1712, when Pembroke was incorporated, Nathaniel Chamberlain was one of the "Heads of Families."

Edward Wanton, by his will dated in 1716, gave his wearing apparel to Nathaniel Chamberlain of Pembroke, and to his two daughters, Abigail and Joanna, five pounds each.

Joanna Butler, in her will (1745), gave legacies to her "cousins," Elizabeth and Patience Chamberlain.

Nathaniel<sup>4</sup> was appointed Adm'r in 1716, and dower was set off to the widow, Abigail, in 1721; the rest of the property was assigned to Benjamin<sup>4</sup>, "son of the deceased," who gave bond, with Thomas Parris, as surety, to pay at the death of Abigail, the widow, certain sums to the others, or a part of them, among whom were Joseph, Eunice and Patience, "children of Nathaniel Chamberlain of Pembroke, and to the son of Ruth Fletcher, deceased, grandson to said Nathaniel."

March 6, 1723/4, Benjamin Chamberlain<sup>4</sup> made a nuncupative will, not probated, in which he provided that his mother and Eunice, Patience and Joseph should have a living out of his estate, "as long as they live or as long as the property holds out," and as his "cosen," Naomi, had been sick a great while, he gave her ten pounds "to pay ye Doctor"; he also gave to his sisters Abigail, and Joanna, twelve pounds each.

11.

IV. MARY ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (John,<sup>2</sup> John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, March 10, 1665; she married, January 24, 1682, Samuel Doggett [Daggett], son of Thomas; she died April 15, 1690; he married (2) Bathsheba Holmes, January 21, 1691/2.

Children of Mary, born in Marshfield:

- i. Samuel Doggett<sup>4</sup>, b. Dec. 21, 1683.
- ii. Mary Doggett<sup>4</sup>, b. April 26, 1687.
- iii. Sarah Doggett<sup>4</sup>, b. April 7, 1689.

These are the grandchildren of John<sup>2</sup>, named in his will as Samuel Dogged, Mary White and Sarah Allyn.

Samuel<sup>4</sup> receipted for his legacy in 1721; he married, Feb'y 2, 1710, Bethiah Waterman, daughter of Joseph and Sarah [Snow] Waterman of Marshfield, born Aug. 20, 1687. 4 Maine Hist. and Gen. Rec., p. 127.

Mary Doggett<sup>4</sup> married Eleazer White and they had, born in Marshfield:

- i. Nehemiah White<sup>5</sup>, b. Jan'y 14, 1712/3.
- ii. Peregrine White<sup>5</sup>, b. Sept. 8, 1715.
- iii. Eleazer White<sup>5</sup>, b. Mar. 8, 1716/7.
- iv. Elkanah White<sup>5</sup>, b. Dec. 10, 1719.
- v. Mary White<sup>5</sup>, b. Mar. 23, 1720/21.
- vi. Benaiah White<sup>5</sup>, b. Sept. 19, 1724.
- vii. Penelope White<sup>5</sup>, b. June 13, 1727.
- viii. Thomas White<sup>5</sup>, b. June 29, 1729.
- ix. Rebecca White<sup>5</sup>, b. Aug. 18, 1731.

12.

IV. JOHANNA ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, October 7, 1667; she married Judah Butler, son of Daniel and Hannah [Howes] Butler of Falmouth; he died before 1712, and she in 1747.

Child, born probably in Marshfield:

- i. Judah Butler<sup>4</sup>, b. in 1702; d. Nov. 10, 1720, in his nineteenth year.

In the old Wanton and Rogers burying-ground in old Scituate, there are (or were recently) one gravestone and a fragment of another still standing; the latter has upon it part of the inscription giving the year of death and the age the same as that of Judah Butler; other portions of the inscription agree, so that there is no reasonable doubt that this fragment marks Judah's grave.

Will of Daniel Butler, Sr., of Falmouth, d. Sept. 10, 1712, p. Jan'y 10, 1717/8 (Barns. Prob. Vol. III, p. 433) gives Judah Butler, only son of Judah Butler, deceased, land and buildings in Falmouth.

In Plym. Co. records (Vol. XXXIV, p. 87) is a memo. of a suit by a Marshfield man, against Judah Butler of Falmouth, sailor, in 1698; the officer's return (Sept. 16, 1699) is "non est inventus."

Joanna Butler in her will, d. Dec. 6, 1745, p. Jan'y 16, 1748/9, describes herself as of Marshfield, and gives her property to her "cousins," in which term she includes nephews and nieces. She mentions (omitting the word "cousin") John Rogers of Hanover [nephew]; Hannah Thrift, "the daughter of my brother John Rogers, deceased"; Elizabeth Chamberlain, to whom she gives an annuity for life and various articles among which is "a silver spoon which used to be called the boy's spoon"; Mary White and Sarah Allen (children of Samuel and Mary [Rogers] Doggett); Patience Chamberlain; Joanna, daughter of Joseph Rogers of Marshfield; Susanna Rogers, daughter of Joseph Rogers; Elizabeth Stetson, daughter of Samuel Stetson of Scituate; "the said Joseph Rogers"; Moses Rogers, son of Joseph; Jemima Torrey and Kezia Torrey of Scituate [not identified]; Rhoda Wing, "daughter of my cousin, Rhoda Wing"; Samuel Russell [son of George Russell who was son of Ann Rogers<sup>2</sup>]; Bethiah Wady; "Sarah Rogers, wife of John Rogers, son of my brother, Thomas Rogers"; sons of Rhoda Wing; and gives to "cousin John Rogers, son of Brother Thomas" all the residue; and makes him executor. Among the witnesses are Caleb and Mary Torrey.

Abigail Hudson<sup>3</sup>, the aunt of Joanna Butler, married a Stetson, and Elizabeth Stetson was probably her granddaughter; but Barry's "Stetson Family" gives no such marriage, and no Samuel with a daughter Elizabeth, who could have been this Elizabeth.

18.

IV. ELIZABETH ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, December 19, 1669; she married, May 11, 1699, as his second wife, Hugh Copperthwaite, who came from England and settled in Flushing, L. I., where he lived fifty-six years and was a Friends' minister nearly forty years; he died, May 20, 1730, at the age of eighty-two years; his first wife, Elizabeth, died November 25, 1697; his second wife, Elizabeth Rogers<sup>3</sup>, died, August 27, 1707; we have found no record of any children.

14.

Children, born in Marshfield:

- 44. Moses<sup>4</sup>, b.
- 45. Susanna<sup>4</sup>, b.
- 46. Joanna<sup>4</sup>, b.

Judith Rogers, wife of Joseph Rogers, was baptized, Oct. 15, 1727.

Amos Rogers was appointed administrator of his estate, Oct. 18, 1760; the sureties on his bond were Thomas Rogers and Moses Rogers, and one of the appraisers was Timothy Rogers.

His real estate was divided in 1761, among Moses, his only son; the children of Joanna Patrick, deceased, "who was a daughter of said Joseph Rogers"; and Susannah Rogers, only surviving daughter of the deceased; reserving to the widow Judith her dower; payments were made by the administrator to Seth Bryant, guardian of the Patrick children.

In 1745, Joanna Butler left legacies to Joseph Rogers<sup>3</sup>, his son Moses<sup>4</sup>, and his daughters, Susanna<sup>4</sup> and Joanna<sup>4</sup>.

Joseph Rogers<sup>3</sup> of Marshfield conveyed to his uncle, John Rogers<sup>2</sup> of M., Jan'y 27, 1706/7, thirty acres of land which he had purchased of his father Joseph Rogers<sup>2</sup>, Jan'y 23, 1706/7; Joanna Butler was a witness to the deed. B. VII, p. 158.

Moses<sup>4</sup>. No mention of him has as yet been found in the town or church records.

Susanna<sup>4</sup>. The only reference to her (save in the Probate record given above) is the following from the record of the Second Church:

"Susanna, daughter of Joseph Rogers and her son, Lemuel, were baptized Sept. 18, 1757."

Joanna<sup>4</sup> married, May 2, 1742, Derby Fitz Patrick; he died before June 16, 1754, as on that day "the widow, Joanna Patrick, and her children" were baptized; she had died before 1761.

Children, born in Marshfield:

- i. John Patrick<sup>5</sup>, bap. June 16, 1754.
- ii. Lydia Patrick<sup>5</sup>, " " " "
- iii. Eliner Patrick<sup>5</sup>, " " " "
- iv. Edmund Patrick<sup>5</sup>, " " " "

15.

IV. JOHN ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (Joseph,<sup>2</sup> John<sup>1</sup>) was born in that part of Duxbury which became Pembroke: he married, March 6, 1722/3, Leah Lincoln, daughter of Daniel and Sarah [Nichols] Lincoln, of Hingham, born December 9, 1695: she died (at the house of her uncle, Moses Lincoln, of Hingham) March 11, 1728/9: he married, widow Sarah [Wing] Turner, daughter of Elisha and Mehetable [Butler] Wing, of Wareham, born May 4, 1708: she had died before 1752, and apparently he had also.

Children, born in Pembroke:

By first wife:

- 47. Leah<sup>4</sup>, b. April 27, 1724; d. June 9, 1736.
- 48. Abigail<sup>4</sup>, b. Oct. 4, 1725.
- 49. Daniel<sup>4</sup>, b. Oct. 2, 1727.

By second wife:

- + 49a. Elizabeth<sup>4</sup>, [Betty] b. Feb'y [Ap'l] 5, 1731.
- 49b. Daughter<sup>4</sup>; probably died young.

We have not traced Abigail<sup>4</sup>, nor Daniel<sup>4</sup>.

Philip Turner ("son of Sarah Rogers, the wife of John Rogers, of Marshfield, and grandson to Elisha Wing") and Rebecca Jenney, daughter to Nathan Jenney and Priscilla, his wife, were married "7 mo. 7th, 1750" Sandwich Fr. Rec.

Elisha Wing, of Wareham, in his will, (1752) mentioned "Philip Turner, the son of my daughter, Sarah," "and the two children my daughter, Sarah, left by her husband, John Rogers," giving them one-third of his household stuff.

And Elizabeth Wing, daughter of Elisha, in her will (1756) gave a legacy to Philip Turner, son of her sister, Sarah Rogers, and also, to "Betty Hoxie, wife of Silas Hoxie, and daughter to my said sister, Sarah Rogers." Vol. XIV, p. 199, 326.

IV. TIMOTHY ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (Joseph,<sup>2</sup> John<sup>1</sup>) was born in that part of Duxbury which became Pembroke; he married, April 6, 1710, Sarah, the daughter of Josiah and Hannah [Dingley] Keen; she died and he married, January 31, 1732/3, Damaris Macomber, of Taunton.

Child, born in Pembroke:

50. Abigail<sup>4</sup>, b. Sept. 8, 1712.

The fullest investigation of the history of this family gives very unsatisfactory results.

His first wife had been previously married, but to whom has not been ascertained. The Pembroke record has an entry, made after her second marriage, "Jeannette, second daughter of Sarah Rogers, and daughter-in-law of Timothy Rogers, born in Pembroke, Oct. 9, 1708."

It appears by a deed (B. LXXVI, p. 247), that he had moved to Middleboro before 1717, but the record of that town gives nothing more than the second marriage.

Josiah Keen, of Duxbury, in his will, d. May 28, 1695, p. Sept. 15, 1710, mentions sons, Josiah, John, Ephraim and Matthew, and four daughters, names not given.

Josiah Keen, Sr., John Keen, Matthew Keen, Ephraim Keen, Isaac Oldham, and Hannah, his wife, John Bishop, and Elizabeth, his wife, of Pembroke, Hudson Bishop, and Abigail, his wife, of Scituate, and Timothy Rogers, and Sarah, his wife, of Middleboro, by deed, dated October 30, 1717, sell to Israel Thomas, land in Duxbury, laid out in 1713.

20.

IV. REBECCA ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (Joseph<sup>2</sup> John<sup>1</sup>) born in that part of Duxbury which became Pembroke, is mentioned in her mother's will as Rebecca Andrews; we do not find her mentioned in any of the Andrews Genealogies, and we have not traced her.

21.

IV. ABIGAIL ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (Joseph<sup>2</sup> John<sup>1</sup>) was born in that part of Duxbury which became Pembroke: she married, as his second wife, Thomas Parris (son of John, of London), who came to Long Island in 1683, married and moved to Boston, where his wife died, leaving one daughter, an older one having died in infancy: he came to Duxbury, now Pembroke, in 1697, where he spent the rest of his life; he died in 1752: whether his wife survived him or not, has not been ascertained.

Children, by second wife, born in (now) Pembroke:

- i. Samuel Parris<sup>4</sup>, d. 1730: had one son, who died young.
- ii. John Parris<sup>4</sup>: settled in Middleboro.
- iii. Thomas Parris<sup>4</sup>, b. May 8, 1701.
- iv. Mercy Parris<sup>4</sup>, probably d. young.
- v. Elizabeth Parris<sup>4</sup>, m. Eleazer Bonney.
- vi. Anne Parris<sup>4</sup>, m. Edward May.
- vii. Moses Parris, settled in Middleboro.

Hon. Albion Keith Parris, Governor of Maine, U. S. Senator, and Judge of the Supreme Court of Maine, descended from this family. He gave a genealogical account of it in 1836, an abstract of which is given (but containing some errors), in the History of Danby, Vt., pp. 222, et seq.: that abstract gives the foregoing (except Mercy), as the children "raised" by Thomas. Willis, evidently upon the authority of the same account, says that he had four sons and three daughters by his second wife.

An account of a part of the children of Thomas may be found in the History of Bridgewater, p. 264: see also History of Danby, Vt., pp. 218, et seq.

Virgil D. Parris, M. C., of Maine, also descended from this family. See History of Paris, Maine, p. 687.

28.

IV. TIMOTHY ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, about 1690: he married, February 9, 1719/20, Lydia Hatch, daughter of Israel and Elizabeth [Hatch] Hatch, born October 16, 1699: he died December 10, 1763, and she, November 5, 1766.

Children, born in Marshfield:

- + 51. Timothy<sup>4</sup>, b. in 1720.
- + 52. Israel<sup>4</sup>, b. Nov. 22, 1722.
- + 53. Peleg<sup>4</sup>, b. Nov. 26, 1725.
- + 54. Lydia<sup>4</sup>, b.
- + 55. Amos<sup>4</sup>, b. about 1728.
- + 56. Zaccheus<sup>4</sup>, b. July —, 1731: perhaps in 1730.
- + 57. Adam<sup>4</sup>, b. Feb'y 4, 1732/3.
- + 58. Elizabeth<sup>4</sup>, b.
- + 59. Jane<sup>4</sup>, b.
- + 60. Eunice<sup>4</sup>, b.

These names are not arranged in the order of births: the dates of births given are taken from records in possession of descendants: when only the year is given, that is found from the age given at date of death: if these were all correct, we ought to be able to arrange the order with comparative accuracy: but Lydia was married in 1743, and Elizabeth is mentioned in a will dated Jan'y 3, 1733/4, so they must come nearer the head of the list.

Will d. July 6, 1763, p. Dec. 27, 1763, mentions wife, Lydia, and children, Timothy, Adam, Amos, Israel, Peleg, Zaccheus, Lydia Lewis, Elizabeth Toleman, Jane Oldham and Eunice Ford. Vol. XVI, p. 543.

Will of Israel Hatch, d. Jan'y 3, 1733/4, p. Nov. 8, 1740, mentions daughter, Lydia, wife of Timothy Rogers, and two granddaughters, Lydia, and Elizabeth Rogers. Vol. VIII, p. 248.

This is the family whose united ages were said, in a letter published in a Bangor (Maine) paper sixty years ago, to have been 988 years — an average of nearly ninety-nine years each; and the statement has been, from time to time, repeated in the newspapers down to within a year: but the records show that the ages of five of them are overstated, in the aggregate, fifty-three years, and the ages of the other five have not been ascertained.

24.

IV. SAMUEL ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (Timothy,<sup>2</sup> John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield about 1670: he married, December 3, 1697, Jael Huet, daughter of Ephriam and Elizabeth [Foster] Huet, born March 15, 1673/4: she was admitted to the church, October 6, 1706: he died in 1747, having survived her.

Children, born in Marshfield:

- + 61. Ruth<sup>4</sup>, bap. in 1699.
- + 62. Elizabeth<sup>4</sup>, bap. in 1701.
- + 63. Samuel<sup>4</sup>, bap. June 23, 1706.
- + 64. Mary<sup>4</sup>, bap. June 23, 1706.
- + 65. Jael<sup>4</sup>, bap. Aug. 8, 1708.
- + 66. Susanna<sup>4</sup>, bap. Oct. 8, 1710.
- + 67. Ebenezer<sup>4</sup>, bap. Oct. 24, 1714.
- + 68. Sarah<sup>4</sup>, bap. June 16, 1717.

The baptisms are taken from the records of the Rev. Nath. Eels, which are prefaced with the following entry:

"When the Rev<sup>d</sup>. Mr. Lawson forsook this church, he left no catalogue of them that were baptised by him: neither is there any to be found of those that have been baptised since the death of Rev. Mr. Mighil; therefore, I thought fit soon after my ordination, to desire those that have been, and have had their children, baptised since that time to give in their names to me, and according to my request many have done; whom, I have here recorded."

The first two children were baptised before his day, and the others by him.

Will d. July 16, 1747, p. Oct. 31, 1747, mentions children, Samuel, Ebenezer, Mary Truant, Elizabeth Turell, Jael Harney, Ruth Porter, Sarah Holmes, and Susanna Rogers. Vol. X, p. 518.

25.

IV. JOHN ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) born in Marshfield, married, December 11, 1700, Hannah Sprague, daughter of Samuel and Sarah Sprague: she died, and he married (2) Sarah —: he died in 1762, leaving her surviving.

Children, born in Marshfield:

- + 69. Hannah<sup>4</sup>, b. Feb'y 9, 1701/2.
- + 70. Sarah<sup>4</sup>, b. Sept. [Dec.] 26, 1705.
- 70a. Stephen<sup>4</sup>, b.

It is probable that there were other children, but no others have been identified.

He died about 1762, and Thomas Stockbridge was appointed Adm'r: no real estate: the papers describe him as a tailor and mention widow and heirs, but no names are given: his estate was insolvent.

An indenture, dated Oct. 16, 1710, shows that Hannah Rogers, wife of John Rogers<sup>2</sup>, of Marshfield, was the daughter of Samuel and Sarah Sprague, and was then living.

Several deeds from John Rogers, of Marshfield, tailor, between 1710 and 1744 have been found, to none of which is his wife, Hannah, a party: among them is a deed in 1732, to his son, Stephen, of Marshfield. B. XXVII, p. 180.

In 1744, there is a deed in which he mentions the land of his son, Stephen, and his wife, Sarah, joins, as she does in deeds after that date. B. XXXVII, p. 77.

In 1748, he conveyed land to Moses Rogers, but the deed was not acknowledged, and was proved in Court in 1763, after his death; Sarah's name is not in this deed. B. XLVII, p. 227.

Stephen<sup>4</sup> has not been traced. The only mention of him that has been found, other than in his father's deeds, is in a deed in which his wife, Sarah, joins, from him to his father, "John Rogers, of Marshfield, Tailor." B. XXXVI, p. 166.

IV. HONOUR ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield. She married, July 12, 1711, as his second wife, William Torrey, son of Dea. James and Elizabeth [Rawlins] Torrey, born in 1683: the dates of their deaths have not been ascertained.

Children, born in Scituate :

- i. Honour Torrey<sup>4</sup>, b. Dec. 18, 1711, m. Joshua Pratt, Feb'y 4, 1741/2.
- ii. William Torrey<sup>4</sup>, b. Dec. 22, 1713, d. in infancy.

- vii. Eunice Torrey<sup>5</sup>, b. March 31, 1725.

These are the children shown by the town records of Scituate : but there were certainly others : Joanna Butler mentioned in her will, (1745),

- viii. Jemima Torrey<sup>4</sup>, and
- ix. Kezia Torrey<sup>4</sup>, and described them as her "cousins," the children of Honour Rogers were her "cousins," and they seem to be the only ones by the name of Torrey who could have come within any meaning of that word.

This family lived in that part of Scituate which, in 1727, became Hanover, and in the church records we find the birth of

- x. "———, child of William and Honour Torrey, b. April 5, 1731."

Among the deaths is also recorded :

"Child of William and Honour Torrey, March 27, 1730/1 : " also,

- xi. "Japhet, the son of Honour Torrey, and servant of Mr. Recompense Tiffany," was drowned, March 8, 1736/7.

Also, the deaths of William Torrey, Nov. 22, 1746, and William Torrey, June 10, 1768, are recorded, but there is nothing to identify them.

He gives David the lot which "I had of my father, Timothy Roggers"; also refers to the marriage settlement with his "present wife, Sarah Lapham, we made before marriage, bearing date, May 19, 1741."

ALICE ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (John<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Scituate, March 26, 1685; she married, September 14, 1705, Thomas Clark, son of Thomas and Martha [Curtis] Clark; she was baptized, March 6, 1718/19, "at her request, being sick and supposed to be near unto death"; she died not long after, and he married Alice Parker and moved to Rochester in 1731.

His second wife was baptized, November 12, 1721, but Ezra, a son of Thomas and Alice, had been baptized, Sept. 4, 1720; the records make it a little uncertain whether Ezra was not a son of the first wife.

35.

V. THOMAS ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (John<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Scituate, August 15, 1695; he probably married Deliverance Slocum, daughter of Ebenezer and Mary [Thurston] Slocum, born August 15, 1691; he died before 1737 and probably before 1729, and apparently she had also died before 1729.

- + 94. Stephen<sup>s</sup>, b. Feb'y 7, 1748/9.

The permit for the marriage, from the Marshfield meeting, was dated Nov. 30, 1737.

Joanna Butler left a legacy (in 1745) to Sarah Rogers, wife of John, the son of her brother Thomas.

Sarah Wing is said to have been a descendant of Rev. Stephen Bachilor, whose daughter married John Wing and had Stephen Wing, who married (2) Sarah Briggs, daughter of John and Catharine Briggs, Nov. [Mar.?] 7, 1753/4; he died Feb'y 24, 1710, and she, Mar. 26, 1689. They had Ebenezer Wing, born Nov. 5, 1671, ## 42.

V. THOMAS ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (Thomas<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, October 28, 1716; he married, September 8, 1744, Deborah Otis, daughter of Dr. Isaac and Deborah [Jacobs] Otis, born October 16, 1723; he died December 6, 1810, and she, December 8, 1807.

- + 96. Hannah<sup>s</sup>, b. Oct. 4, 1747.

- 103. Rhoda<sup>s</sup>, b. Feb'y 23, 1762; d. without issue.
- 104. Lucy<sup>s</sup>, b. Mar. 21, 1765; d. without issue.

Bethiah<sup>s</sup> married, June 10, 1777, [pub. May 24, 1777] as his second wife, Jonathan Slocum, son of Peleg and Rebecca [Williams] Slocum, born Ap'l 3, 1729; he is credited with one son by his first wife, but is not credited with any by his second wife; he moved to "Nine Partners," N. Y., and was living there in 1807.

The publisher has a letter to Priscilla [Rogers] Ellis, written in 1829, by her sister, Abigail<sup>s</sup>, from Granville, N. Y., showing that she and her sister, Lucy, both then unmarried, had just moved there from Marshfield; the letter also mentions her "sister Slocum" and her "sister Russell."

43.

V. BETHIAH ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (Thomas<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, September 29, 1718; she married, October 1, 1741, John Wady, son of Humphrey and Sarah [Wing<sup>2</sup>] Wady, born July 14, 1721. It has been supposed that they lived in Sandwich, but in a deed, dated August 10, 1751 (B. XLII, p. 131) they are described as of Dartmouth, and it is quite certain that they lived in Dartmouth in 1756, at the time of the death of Bethiah's mother, for her will was probated in Bristol County; see ante p. 19.

The dates of their deaths and names of their children (if any) have not been ascertained.

On July 15, 1801, more than forty-five years after the probate of the will of Bethiah Rogers, her daughter, Bethiah Wady, then nearly eighty-three years old, receipted to John and Rhoda [Wing] Tucker for $490.00, "being in full satisfaction of all and every part of all the legacy that my mother, Bethiah Rogers, has given me in her last will and testament", and discharged them, as well as the Executors of her mother's will, from all further claims.

This receipt is a curiosity, for it is upon officially stamped paper bearing the impression of two stamps; it was given while the Stamp Act of 1797 was in force; the amount of the stamp was fifty cents.

Rhoda [Wing] Tucker was the daughter of Benjamin Wing and his wife, Rhoda Rogers, who was the sister of Bethiah [Rogers] Wady who signed the above described receipt. Why she waited forty-five years for the payment of her legacy is not explained.

Joanna Butler, in her will (1745), mentions her cousin, Bethiah Wady.

V. ELIZABETH [BETTY] ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (John<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Pembroke, February [April] 5, 1731; she married, June 20, 1750, Silas Hoxie, son of Solomon and Sarah [Robinson] Hoxie, born, October 10, 1725; he died, April 4, 1765, and she, September 9, 1819.

Children, born in East Sandwich:

- i. Barnabas Hoxie<sup>5</sup>, b. Apr. 30, 1751; d. July 16, 1758.
- ii. Isaac Hoxie<sup>5</sup>, b. July 22, 1754; d. Jan'y 20, 1825.
- iii. Sarah Hoxie<sup>5</sup>, b. July 2, 1765; d. Sept. 1, 1848.

The accidental discovery of the record of a deed, has led to investigations which make it quite certain that Elizabeth's mother did not marry John<sup>3</sup> (Joseph<sup>2</sup>), No. 15, but his cousin, John<sup>3</sup> (Timothy<sup>2</sup>), No. 25. See pp. 24, 29.

The investigations will be completed and the result given under the head of "Additions and Corrections" at the end of this volume.

51.

V. TIMOTHY ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (Timothy<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield in 1720; he married, August 28, 1755, Desire Sylvester; he died, December 27, 1798, aged seventy-eight.

His wife's parentage has not been ascertained; there was no administration on his estate; we have not been able to obtain any account of his family, except that deeds have been discovered which show that he had one son:

— 104a. Prince<sup>5</sup>, b. about 1765.

Prince Rogers<sup>5</sup> married, March 21, 1790, Mary Gorham; he died, May 28, 1832, a. 67, and she, June 19, 1835, a. 82; no children.

He witnessed the will of Amos Rogers, Jan'y 21, 1799; he conveyed, April 1, 1826, to David Gorham, "all my homestead farm lying in Marshfield, which came to me from Honor'd father, Timothy Rogers, deceased" * * "excepting the mill and mill privilege which I have heretofore disposed of" * * "reserving to myself and my wife, Mary Rogers, the use" * * * "during our natural lives." B. CLXXVII, p. 238.

David Gorham sold the farm, Sept. 9, 1834, and described it as the homestead farm of Prince Rogers, which came to him from his father, Timothy Rogers, deceased.

His will, d. Jan'y 28, 1832, p. June 5, 1832, mentions wife Mary; David Gorham; Calvin Hatch Rogers, son of Abijah [who was son of Nathaniel<sup>5</sup> (Israel<sup>4</sup>)]; Mercy Gorham, daughter of David Gorham; "the widow, Ruth Rogers" [widow of Zaccheus<sup>5</sup>]; Bethia Rogers, Jr. and Eunice Rogers, singlewomen and daughters of Nathaniel Rogers; Elisha Rogers; Prince Rogers 2<sup>d</sup>; Bethia Conant; Hannah Phillips, wife of Jonathan; Elijah Leonard; Lemuel Hall and Hatch Tilden.

52.

V. ISRAEL ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (Timothy<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, November 22, 1722; he married, December 31, 1767, Bethiah Thomas, daughter of Samuel and Rebecca [Howland] Thomas, born January 23, 1728/9; he died, November 29, 1811, and she, June 15, 1819.

Children, born in Marshfield:

- + 105. Israel<sup>s</sup>, b. Feb'y 12, 1748 '9.
- + 106. Nathaniel<sup>s</sup>, b. Sept. 7, 1740.
- + 107. Thomas<sup>s</sup>, b. June 8, 1752.
- + 108. Asa<sup>s</sup>, b. May 25, 1754.
- 109. Abijah<sup>s</sup>, b. June 24, 1756; bap. Aug. 15, 1756; probably d. young.
- 110. Araunah<sup>s</sup>, b. Nov. 5, 1758.
- + 111. Bethiah<sup>s</sup>, b. Feb'y 24, 1761; bap. May 10, 1761.
- 112. Howland<sup>s</sup>, b. Sept. 3, 1763.
- + 113. Rebekah<sup>s</sup>, b. Dec. 3, 1766; bap. "on her own account" Sept. 25, 1790.
- + 114. Samuel<sup>s</sup>, b. Apr. 27, 1769.
- + 115. Mercy<sup>s</sup>, b. Nov. 22, 1772.

Israel Rogers and Bethiah, his wife, and their children, Israel, Nathaniel, Thomas and Asa were baptized, Jan'y 11, 1756.

He and his sons were shipbuilders and gained a high reputation as such. See Briggs' "Shipbuilding on North River."

Four of his children married children of Benjamin and Mercy [Philips] Hatch of Scituate; see deed dated Mar. 3, 1790. B. LXIX, p. 266.

Israel Rogers of Marshfield conveyed, Apr. 29, 1783, to his son, Nathaniel of M., part of a lot "which fell to me in the division of the estate of my Father, Timothy Rogers, deceased".

Abijah<sup>s</sup>. Beyond the record of his birth and baptism, nothing has been found relating to him; while his death is not recorded in the church records, he probably died young.

Araunah<sup>s</sup>. Briggs, in his "Shipbuilding," says that Araunah married Deborah Davis. There is a faint tradition that he went "Down East". We find no mention of him—even of his marriage—in any record.

Howland<sup>3</sup>. Briggs also says that Howland married Hannah Davis.

But the History of Thomaston, Maine, says that Capt. Howland Rogers, born in 1764, came early from Marshfield to Thomaston as a ship carpenter; married Hannah Bradford; removed to Medford, Mass., where he died, March 1, 1814. His children were:

1. Capt. Thomas, who moved to Boston.
2. Mehitabel, who married Ephraim Wood of Camden.
3. Nancy, who married Oakes Perry of Camden.
4. Hannah, who married Simon Kent of Camden.

53.

V. PELEG ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (Timothy<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, November 6, 1725; he married, April 26, 1754, Hannah Stevens; he died, August 13, 1820, and she, April 26, 1806.

Children, born in Marshfield:

- + 116. Peleg<sup>5</sup>, b. in 1755.
- + 117. Nathaniel<sup>5</sup>, b. Aug. 6, 1757.
- + 118. Patience<sup>5</sup>, b. about 1760.
- + 119. Isaac<sup>5</sup>, b.
- + 120. Timothy<sup>5</sup>, b.

No record, public or private, of this family has been found. It is by no means certain that these are all the children, and it is not absolutely certain that Patience and Timothy belong here.

Patience<sup>5</sup> named her oldest son "Peleg" and that son (Peleg Mann) named his oldest son for his wife's grandfather, and his second son "Peleg Rogers," presumably for his grandfather.

Timothy<sup>5</sup> died in 1845; and Arthur Rogers<sup>6</sup> oldest son of Isaac<sup>5</sup>, petitioned, as "next of kin," for the appointment of the administrator. If Timothy was brother of Isaac, he had outlived all his brothers, and Arthur was his oldest nephew, and "next of kin."

54.

V. LYDIA ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (Timothy<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield; she married, December 1, 1743, James Lewis, son of John and Sarah [Marsh] Lewis, born September 9, 1712; H. C. 1731; he "owned the covenant" and was baptized April 23, 1749; he died in 1785.

Children, born in Marshfield:

- i. Lydia Lewis<sup>s</sup>, b. Dec. 8, 1744; bap. Jan'y 13, 1744/5.
- ii. Achsah Lewis<sup>s</sup>, b. Jan'y 7, 1746/7; bap. Feb. 22, 1746/7.
- iii. James Lewis<sup>s</sup>, b. May 14, 1750; bap. Nov. 4, 1750.
- iv. Calvin Lewis<sup>s</sup>, bap. Oct. 15, 1752.
- v. Luther Lewis<sup>s</sup>, bap. Aug. 10, 1755.
- vi. Joseph Lewis<sup>s</sup>, bap. July 2, 1758.
- vii. Bela Lewis<sup>s</sup>, bap. Aug. 2, 1761.

No mention of this family in Marshfield records after 1761, has been found; in the Harvard catalogue, the year only of his death is given.

55.

V. AMOS ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (Timothy<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield about 1728; he "owned the covenant" and was baptized, December 21, 1755; he married, December 1, 1757, Rachel Wales, daughter of Rev. Atherton and Mary [Niles] Wales, born, February 2, 1734/5; he died, August 26, 1802, and she, January 19, 1798.

Children, born in Marshfield:

- + 121. Rachel<sup>s</sup>, bap. Oct. 1758.
- + 122. Persis<sup>s</sup>, bap. May 14, 1761.

- 124. Mary<sup>s</sup>, b. Mar. 5, 1765; d. Mar. 6, 1765.
- 125. Amos<sup>s</sup>, bap. June 1, 1766; d. June 28, 1766.
- 126. Thela<sup>s</sup>, d. April 1769, aged three weeks.
- 127. Mary<sup>s</sup>, bap. May 14, 1770; d. May 28, 1770.
- 128. Amos<sup>s</sup>, b. Ap'l 8, 1772; d. same day.

Five gravestones, in a row, mark the graves of the last five children.

V. ZACCHEUS ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (Timothy<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, in July, 1731; he was baptized, December 4, 1757; he married, [published April 4, 1756] Rebecca Lapham, daughter of David and Rebecca [King] Lapham, born, September 21, 1732; she died ———; he married, November 27, 1766, Submit Jones, of Hingham, daughter of Benjamin and Mary [Jordan] Jones, born, October 1, 1733; she died, June 19, 1798; he married, December 13, 1802, Naomi Hatch, of Scituate, daughter of Benjamin and Jerusha [Phillips] Hatch, baptized May 6, 1748; he died, September 15, 1817, aged eighty-six years and two months, and she, August 11, 1825, aged seventy-eight.

Will d. Feb'y 22, 1817, p. Oct. 6, 1817, mentions wife Naomi Rogers; sons, Allen, Charles and Benjamin; daughters, Aggatha Hatch and Rebecca Wright; and children of son, Zaccheus, and of daughter, Mary, both deceased.

Record of administration on Naomi's estate shows that she was sister of Submit, Jane and Joseph, children of Benjamin Hatch.

There is doubt about the date of birth of Zaccheus; his age as given in the record of his third marriage makes him born in 1730.

Zaccheus Rogers, of Marshfield, shipwright, conveyed (his wife, Submit, joining in the deed) Dec. 22, 1767, to Timothy Rogers, yeoman, "all my real estate, both upland and meadow, that fell to me in the division of the real estate of my late honored father, Timothy Rogers, deceased, except the Pine land." B. LIV, p. 17.

The farm is still occupied by a descendent of Elisha, who has the Family Bible of Adam Rogers, and the site of his blacksmith shop is still known.

61.

V. RUTH ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (Samuel<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield; was baptized in 1699; she married, November 19, 1722, Nicholas Porter, of Abington, son of Nicholas and Bostina [Reed] Porter, born in Weymouth, October 26, 1700; she died, (probably) August 31, 1775.

62.

V. ELIZABETH ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (Samuel<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield; was baptized in 1701; she married, (Duxbury record) September 18, 1720, Thomas Tirrell, (also called Terrill and Turell) son of William and Abigail [Pratt] Tirrell, of Abington; he died in 1732.

Some of Jacob's children settled in Bridgewater, as stated in Mitchell's History.

His brother, William, was appointed Admr., July 18, 1732; his estate was insolvent; "necessary utensils" were set out to his widow, Elizabeth. Oct. 6, 1732; he was indebted, under his father's will, to his sisters, six in number, the names of whom and of the husband of each are given in the probate papers.

63.

V. SAMUEL ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (Samuel<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, July 27, 1703; he married, November 25, 1731, Experience Thomas, daughter of Daniel and Experience [Tilden] Thomas, born, July 1, 1709; he died, November, 1761, and she, February 9, 1802.

- 152. Samuel<sup>s</sup>, bap. April 22, 1744; d. young.
- 153. Experience<sup>s</sup>, bap. May 3, 1746; d. young
- + 154. Mary<sup>s</sup>, bap. Feb'y 26, 1748/9.

Will of Samuel Rogers, of Marshfield, housewright, d. Nov. 4, 1761, p. Nov. 24, 1761, mentions wife, Experience; sons, Thomas and Simeon; and daughters, Penelope Foord, Lydia and Mary Rogers., Vol. XVI. p. 237.

64.

V. MARY ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (Samuel<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield; was baptized, June 23, 1706; she married John Trouant, son of John; he died in May, 1749, leaving her surviving.

Children, born in Marshfield:

- i. Samuel Trouant<sup>s</sup>, b.
- ii. Mary Trouant<sup>s</sup>, b.
- iii. Lydia Trouant<sup>s</sup>, b.
- iv. John Trouant<sup>s</sup>, b.

His will, d. May 17, 1749, p. May 29, 1749, mentions wife, Mary, and sons, Samuel and John, and daughters, Mary and Lydia, then minors and probably under fourteen years of age.

John Trouant and Mary, his wife, executed a release of the legacy left her in her father's will, Nov. 6, 1747, at Plymouth.

In the later records the name is Truant.

65.

V. JAEI ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (Samuel<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield; was baptized, August 8, 1708; she married, January 14, 1739/40, Michael Harney.

Children, born in Marshfield:

- i. Rebecca Harney<sup>5</sup>, bap. May 30, 1742.
- ii. Susanna Harney<sup>5</sup>, bap. June 24, 1744.
- iii. Sarah Harney<sup>5</sup>, bap. Dec. 4, 1748.

They seem to have moved to Boston; for the release to Ebenezer Rogers for the legacy left to Jael<sup>4</sup> in the will of her father, Samuel, dated Sept. 28, 1747, was acknowledged by both in Boston, Nov. 3, 1747. Deeds, B. XXXIX, p. 41, 42.

66.

V. SUSANNA ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (Samuel<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield in 1709; baptized October 8, 1710; she married, November 13, 1749, as his second wife, WILLIAM ROGERS; he died in 1764, and she, January 27, 1794, in her eighty-fifth year.

Child, born in Marshfield:

155. Jonah<sup>5</sup>, bap. May 24, 1752.

The parentage of William Rogers has not been ascertained; he had married January—1731/2, Margaret Sylvester, daughter of Joseph; she died about 1748.

Children, by first wife, born in Marshfield:

156. William, bap. Aug. 10, 1740.
157. Sarah, bap. Aug. 10, 1740.
- 158. Hannah, bap. April 25, 1742; d. young.
159. Joseph, bap. May 5, 1745.
- 160. Malachi, bap. Mar. 29, 1747; d. young.

The record of baptisms, from which the foregoing was taken, begins, in 1739; it is not certain, therefore, that there were not older children; but if so, they must have died young, because none are mentioned in the will; for the same reason, it is assumed that Hannah and Malachi also died young.

Will of William Rogers of Marshfield, laborer, d. April 13, 1764, p. May 20, 1764, mentions wife, Susanna; sons, Jonah Rogers and Joseph Rogers; daughter, Sarah Rogers and grand-daughter, Lydia Rogers whose parents are not named, but probably the daughter of his son, William, as Malachi, if living, was only about seventeen years old at date of will.

67.

V. EBENEZER ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (Samuel<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, about 1713; he married Sarah——, who was baptized, December 20, 1739, after her marriage; she died about 1784, and he married, November 23, 1788, Hannah [Willson] Cole of Scituate, widow of George Cole (whom she married in 1768) and daughter of William and Hannah [Bourn] Willson, born in 1741; he died February 16, 1798, "aged about 85" she survived him, married (3) Caleb Torrey of Scituate and died in 1825.

Children (by first wife) born in Marshfield:

- 161. Ruth<sup>s</sup>, bap. Jan'y 6, 1739/40.
- 162. Betty<sup>s</sup>, bap. May 31, 1741.
- 163. Jael<sup>s</sup>, bap. in 1743, being sick.

These are all the children disclosed by the town or church records, and there was no administration on his estate.

In a deed, given in 1783, his wife Sarah joins (B. LXXXIV, p. 105), but in a deed dated April 18, 1794, given to his grandson, Ebenezer Rogers Lapham, his wife, Hannah, joins to release dower.

Ruth<sup>s</sup> married, Nov. 12, 1761, Stephen Lapham, who died, April 22, 1804, aged about 68.

Betty<sup>s</sup> married. Dec. 17, 1767, Asa Lapham; she died, July 6, 1823, aged 82; the church records give them, born in Marshfield,

- i. Sarah Stetson Lapham<sup>6</sup>, bap. May 6, 1770.
- ii. Ebenezer Rogers Lapham<sup>6</sup>, bap. June 23, 1771.
- iii. Rebecca Lapham<sup>6</sup>, bap. May 23, 1773.

The names of these children indicate that the first wife of Ebenezer Rogers was Sarah Stetson.

Jael<sup>s</sup> married, June 9, 1766, "Frederic Anderson of London."

68.

Children, born in Marshfield:

- i. Mercy Holmes<sup>s</sup>, bap. Dec. 9, 1739.
- ii. Huet Holmes<sup>s</sup>, bap. Jan'y —, 1742.
- iii. Ruth Holmes<sup>s</sup>, bap. Sept. 29, 1745.
- iv. Josiah Holmes<sup>s</sup>, bap. Oct. 16, 1748.
- v. Usla [Ursula?] Holmes<sup>s</sup>, bap. Sept. 8, 1751.
- vi. Sarah Holmes<sup>s</sup>, b. Sept. 15, 1754.
- vii. Molly Holmes<sup>s</sup>, b. June 13, 1756.
- viii. Lydia Holmes<sup>s</sup>, b. July 13, 1756.
- ix. Betty Holmes<sup>s</sup>, b. July 16, 1758.

There may have been one or more children older than Mercy, as the record of baptisms began in 1739.

In 1747, Josiah Holmes and Sarah, his wife, receipted for the legacy given to her in the will of her father, Samuel Rogers.

She joined in a deed, April 10, 1796, describing herself as a "widow and spinster."

69.

V. HANNAH ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (John<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, February 9, 1701/2; she married, July 8, 1724, Thomas Stockbridge, of Scituate, son of Thomas and Sarah [Reed] Stockbridge, born, February 13, 1702/3; he died in 1790, having long survived her.

Children, born in Scituate:

- i. Thomas Stockbridge<sup>s</sup>, bap. Aug. 6, 1725; he died unmarried in the life time of his father.
- ii. Hannah Stockbridge<sup>s</sup>, bap. Sept. 26, 1728; d. young.
- iii. Stephen Stockbridge<sup>s</sup>, bap. Mar. 24, 1733/4.

Will of Thomas Stockbridge, of Scituate, d. Jan'y 1, 1787, p. Ap'l 26, 1790; he, "being aged," gives all his property to his son, Stephen Stockbridge.

Stephen Stockbridge<sup>s</sup> died about 1800, leaving a widow but no children. His property was divided between Rachel Stockbridge, his widow, and Bettie Hoxie, his "heir at law." The real estate was sold by Nathaniel Freeman, as attorney for Betty Hoxie, appointed by the judge for that purpose; the money seems to have been paid to him; he settled an account in the Probate Court and paid the balance over to Betty Hoxie, taking a release signed by her, dated Jan'y 7, 1803, and witnessed by Isaac Hoxie and Sarah Hoxie 3<sup>d</sup>, her children; see No. 49a, p. 37.

July 7, 1803, the administrator was ordered by the Probate Court, to pay the balance in his hands "to Rachel Stockbridge, widow of said Stephen, and to Betty Hoxie, heir at law of said Stephen." The relationship of Betty Hoxie to Stephen Stockbridge<sup>s</sup>, which made her his heir-at-law" will be stated in the "Additions and Corrections."

70.

V. SARAH ROGERS<sup>4</sup> (John<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, December 26, 1705; she married, October 16, 1728, Samuel Ford, son of William and Elizabeth [—] Ford, born, May 11, 1701; she died, June 13, 1796, aged 91.

Children, born in Marshfield:

- i. Jemima Ford<sup>s</sup>, b. Oct. 18, 1729.
- ii. Keziah Ford<sup>s</sup>, b. Ap'l 14, 1732.
- iii. Samuel Ford<sup>s</sup>, b. June 16, 1735.
- iv. Sarah Ford<sup>s</sup>, b. July 31, 1739.
- v. Luke Ford<sup>s</sup>, b. July 27, 1741.

- vi. Peleg Ford<sup>s</sup>, b. Mar. 1, 1746/7; probably d. young.
- vii. Lydia Ford<sup>s</sup>, b. Aug. 1, 1748; probably d. young.
- viii. Betty Ford<sup>s</sup>, b. May 31, 1749.

The foregoing was taken from the town record; an unpublished genealogy does not give Peleg or Lydia; but gives Elizabeth [Betty] born May 31, 1747.

The mother of Hannah<sup>4</sup> and Sarah<sup>s</sup> was, quite certainly Sarah, daughter of Thomas Chillingworth, Secretary of Massachusetts Colony, 1686-1692.

71 to 75.

VI. The children of JOHN<sup>4</sup> (John<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) seem to have left Scituate, and but little is known of them or is found in the records.

Daniel<sup>s</sup> (71) married Ruth Parker, Nov. 20, 1733, and the Hanover church records show that they had:

- 164. Charity<sup>6</sup>, b. Jan'y 14, 1734/5.
- 165. Child<sup>6</sup>, b. Nov. —, 1741.
- 166. Ruth<sup>6</sup>, bap. Oct. 31, 1742.

Elizabeth<sup>s</sup> (72) is probably the one who married Timothy Macomber of Dartmouth, Jan. 25, 1738/9.

John<sup>s</sup> (73) is not mentioned in town or church records and they have nothing to indicate whether he died young or went away.

Deborah<sup>s</sup> (74) is probably the one who married William Wood of Dartmouth, June 3, 1740; the church records give the death of "Deborah Rogers, July 16, 1752," but she was probably the mother of Deborah<sup>s</sup>.

James<sup>s</sup> (75) married, May 7, 1741, Rachel Bailey. She died Oct. 23, 1744; they had:

- 167. Bailey<sup>6</sup>, bap. Oct. 27, 1744; d. Dec. 22, 1744.

The record describes Bailey<sup>6</sup> as "the only son of James Rogers," perhaps indicating that there was a daughter; the record of his baptism states that his mother died, within a few hours after his birth.

As the probate records show no settlement of the estate of either Daniel, John or James, the presumption is very strong that they moved away.

76.

VI. JEREMIAH ROGERS<sup>5</sup> (John<sup>4</sup>, John<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in that part of Scituate which became Hanover, about 1717, but not baptized till February 19, 1726/7; he married, August 23, 1738, Deborah Bailey of Hanover, daughter of John and Abigail Bailey; she died August 21, 1761; he married again and removed, about 1773, to Freeport, Maine, where he died, February 24, 1803, and his second wife, June 29, 1795.

Children, all by first wife, born in Hanover:

- 168. Thomas<sup>6</sup>, b. Sept. 12, 1739; bap. May 30, 1742; d. Dec. 7, 1744.
- 169. Rhoda<sup>6</sup>, bap. May 30, 1742; m. Thomas Rose.
- 170. Mark<sup>6</sup>, bap. May 30, 1742; m. Mary Bray.
- 171. Hannah<sup>6</sup>, bap. Jan'y 8, 1743/4; d. young.
- 172. James<sup>6</sup>, b. in 1746; m. twice in Maine.
- 173. John<sup>6</sup>, bap. May 22, 1748; d. July 9, 1748.
- 174. Infant son<sup>6</sup>, b. —; d. Nov. 19, 1749.
- 175. John<sup>6</sup>, bap. Mar. 31, 1751; d. June 2, 1751.
- 176. Jeremiah<sup>6</sup>, bap. Oct. 29, 1752; d. Jan'y 15, 1753.
- 177. Seth<sup>6</sup>, bap. Mar. 24, 1754; d. young.
- 178. Deborah<sup>6</sup>, bap. June 1, 1755; d. Nov. 30, 1755.

His surviving children, with their families, moved with him to Freeport, Me.; an account of them is given in the Maine Historical and Genealogical Recorder, Vol. IV, p. 83, Vol. IX, p. 51.

77 to 84.

VI. The children of JOSHUA<sup>4</sup> (John<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) obtained but slight mention in the Scituate records, church or town, and it is quite certain that they moved away.

Joshua<sup>5</sup> (78) married, March 15, 1764, Sarah Nash, daughter of James Nash; they renewed their covenant and had their two children baptized, May 11, 1766. They had born in Scituate:

179. Joshua<sup>6</sup>, b. Dec. 10, 1764.

180. Sarah<sup>6</sup>, bap. May 11, 1766.

John<sup>5</sup> (82) married Mary Lambert of Scituate, March 26, 1770.

Neither the estate of Joshua<sup>4</sup>, nor that of either of his sons, was settled in the Probate Court of Plymouth County.

In the division of the estate of James Nash, one share was assigned to "Sarah Rogers, wife of Joshua Rogers of Chesterfield." Vol. XXXIII, p. 276.

Joshua Rogers (wife Mehitabel) conveyed real estate, Sept. 12, 1763. B. XLVIII, p. 253.

86.

VI. ALICE ROGERS<sup>5</sup> (Caleb<sup>4</sup>, John<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Hanover, Feb. 19, 1745; baptized, April 7, 1745; she married, December 14, 1766, Samuel Stetson, son of Samuel and Rebecca [Turner] Stetson, born about 1725; he died, February 5, 1791, and she, May 29, 1820.

Children, born in Hanover:

- i. Turner Stetson<sup>6</sup>, b. Sept. 8, 1767; m. Lydia Rose.
- ii. Reuben Stetson<sup>6</sup>, b. —, 1769; d. Sept. 21, 1778.

The printed record of inscriptions on their gravestones says that Caleb<sup>5</sup> died in his eightieth year, and his first wife in her sixty-sixth year; the former should be eighty-sixth year, and the latter sixtieth year.

In the settlement of the estate of Caleb Rogers, his widow, Sarah, is mentioned; the estate was held in common with Reuben Rogers, and distribution was made to Reuben, Houghton Sumner as heir in right of his wife, Martin Winsor as heir in right of his wife, and Levi Curtis in right of his wife.

Sarah Rogers (wife of Caleb) made her will, June 19, 1837, p. Oct. —, 1837, in which she mentions Joseph C. On Feb'y 12, 1831, Benjamin Barrell conveyed his interest in the house on Water Street, consideration one dollar, to Ruth Rogers, singlewoman — "it being * * * the house that was the dwelling lately occupied by Israel Rogers, lately deceased."

Hannah Rogers and Benjamin Barrell, both of C., were married, June 10, 1802.

He settled at first in Lincolnville, but afterwards moved to Bangor; at what date is not known, but as early as 1838; in 1843 and 1846, Adam Rogers was a carpenter, on Charles Street, and in 1851, a blacksmith boarding with David McCoy and in 1855, with J. Decrow; McCoy was a farmer living on the "Levant Road" in Bangor, now Ohio Street.

Adam Rogers was adjudged insane, Oct. 13, 1856, on the petition of Thankful Decrow, Jane R. McCoy and David McCoy, and a guardian appointed, who settled an account in June, 1857, in which he credits himself with "cash paid A. Rogers to Lowell," Oct. 18, 1856, and with cash paid, Ap'l 8, 1857, for "bringing the body of A. Rogers from Lowell" and expenses of burial.

His wife had evidently remained in Bangor, for the guardian was allowed for bills paid, during that time, to Noah McKusick for her board, and for rent to Thomas Boynton; he also paid a bill for her board after her husband's death, to Jane McCoy.

On settlement of the guardian's account there was about $200 in his hands, but the court record does not show any further proceedings.

In Mt. Hope Cemetery, in Bangor, in the McCoy lot, is a headstone with the inscription, "Adam Rogers, Born April 17, 1769. Died April 4, 1859. Olive G., his wife, Born June 20, 1777. Died Jan'y 28, 1859." The "1859" in the date of his death on the grave-stone is evidently an error for "1857."

Much time and labor were expended in efforts to trace this family, the only clew at starting being the fact that an Adam Rogers was in Bangor in 1838; and it was not until the manuscript was in the printer's hands that the family Bible was located.

The following, except the figures in brackets is taken from the Monthly Chronicle, p. 345, published in 1838:

"Marshfield, (Mass.) vs. Scarborough (Me.)

"We find in the Bangor Whig the following letter from Mr. Adam Rogers, whose family pride appears to have been aroused by the publication of the case he refers to.

"To the Editors of the Whig and Courier :

"GENTS: — Having seen in the Weslyan Journal of the 25th ult., a notice of a case of remarkable longevity, in a family that originated in Scarborough in this State, the children of which were eleven in number, two of whom are still living, eight having died at the age of eighty years, I take the liberty to send you a notice of another case, which though not exactly of the kind, is in my belief more remarkable.

"My father's family were all born and brought up in Marshfield, Massachusetts, and consisted of six brothers and four sisters. The following died at the ages set against their names.

Timothy Rogers,	100 years.	[78]
Israel Rogers,	105 "	[89]
Peleg Rogers,	107 "	[95]
Amos Rogers,	85 "	[85]
Zacheus Rogers,	97 "	[86]
Adam Rogers, (my father)	104 "	[102]
Lydia Lewis,	90 "
Betsey Tolman, if living, is about	100 "
I have not heard of her death.
Eunice Ford died last year,	100 "
Jane Oldham, if living, upwards of	100 "

---

Making their aggregate ages, 988 "

"It is probable that Betsey Tolman and Jane Oldham died a few years since. If so it will reduce the amount somewhat. Will some one in Massachusetts, who may know the fact, inform me if they are dead, when they died, by letter addressed, Bangor, Maine, directed to me."

ADAM ROGERS.

The figures in brackets are the ages as shown by the records; the ages of the four sisters are known only approximately; while the average age of the ten does not come up to the statement, it is certain that it was over ninety—a remarkable longevity.

VII. AMOS ROGERS<sup>6</sup> (Asa<sup>5</sup>, Israel<sup>4</sup>, Timothy<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield, February 24, 1791.

Mr. BRIGGS says (pp. 204, 205) that this Amos married and had sons, "John, who went to Warren, Me., and Josephus, a ship-builder of Bath, Me., where his children and grandchildren have succeeded to the business."

But the very full history of Warren (with genealogies) makes no mention of John; and it is certain that Josephus and his children have not carried on ship-building in Bath. Hon. William Rogers of Bath succeeded his father in that business in Bath, and they are the only persons of the name who have carried on ship-building there. They are not of the Marshfield family, but probably descendants of the Ipswich family.

I have not been able to find any traces of this Josephus in any of our ship-building towns in Maine, but the records are so incomplete that the question is by no means settled.

On the other hand, the historian of the Oakman family says that this Amos "died at sea; probably unmarried."

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS.

I.

PARTIES OF THE NAME NOT IDENTIFIED.

We have found the names of a few whom we have not identified:

1. There was a William Rogers in Scituate in 1671, but very certainly not of this family; no record of his family has been found, but he probably had descendants.
2. The Marshfield records gave the birth of Abiah, child of Stacy Rogers, born March 11, 1728/9, but no further mention of them is found in church, town or probate records.
3. Jennet Rogers, daughter of William and Jennet Rogers was baptized, May 29, 1720, Scit. Ch. Rec.
4. Elisha Rogers of Marshfield, married, December 2, 1741, Margaret McFarland; he died soon after; she had daughter, Orphan, born, February 26, 1742/3. "Orphin, daughter of Margaret Rogers, widow, baptized March 26, 1742." Orphan married a White and died May 25, 1816, aged 73. Margaret was appointed Adm'x of the estate of Elisha, January 15, 1742/3.
5. William Rogers (see p. 47) was probably of the same family as Elisha.
6. Will of Jesse Thomas of Pembroke, dated June 5, 1762, gives to James Cox, alias Rogers, son of Abigail Rogers of Pembroke, thirty pounds at his arrival to the age of twenty-one. Vol. xix, p. 59.

WANTON AND ROGERS BURYING GROUND.

On the farm of Edward Wanton, in old Scituate, close by North River, about a mile above Union Bridge, was a burying ground, which had been fenced and used before 1707, and probably for many years; in fact, it is believed that it was set apart as early as 1661, when Edward Wanton purchased the farm and that John Rogers<sup>1</sup> was buried in it that year. Wanton conveyed the farm to his son in 1705, and in 1707 the son conveyed to Edward Wanton of Scituate and John Rogers, Senior, of Marshfield [John<sup>2</sup>] the burying ground as then and theretofore fenced and used, to be used only as a burying ground by Wanton and Rogers, their heirs, assigns, families and "posterities," with a passage way to the road. When the son sold the farm, he reserved the burying ground; but, as generally in such cases, after the farm passed out of the possession of the family, the burying ground was neglected and trees grew upon it until it became a thicket and all appearance of a burying ground disappeared, save one headstone and the fragment of another as mentioned on p. 21.

FAMILIES REWRITTEN OR CORRECTED BY ADDITIONS.

1. The family of MARY DOGGETT<sup>3</sup> (p. 21) was taken from an erroneous authority. The children were:

- i. Samuel Doggett<sup>4</sup>, b. Dec. 24, 1683; d. in infancy.
- ii. Samuel Doggett<sup>4</sup>, b. Ap'l 7, 1685.
- iii. Mary Doggett<sup>4</sup>, b. Ap'l 16, 1687.
- iv. Sarah Doggett<sup>4</sup>, b. Ap'l 7, 1689.

2. As already stated (p. 38) the statement of the second marriage of John<sup>3</sup> (No. 15, p. 24) is erroneous; the widow Turner married her cousin, John<sup>3</sup> (No. 25, p. 29); to avoid confusion corrected accounts of both families are given;

15.

IV. JOHN ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (Joseph<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in that part of Duxbury which became Pembroke; he married, March 6, 1722/3, Leah Lincoln, daughter of Daniel and Sarah [Nichols] Lincoln of Hingham, born, December 9, 1695; she died, at the house of her uncle, Moses Lincoln of Hingham, March 11, 1728/9.

Children, born in Pembroke:

- 47. Leah<sup>4</sup>, b. Ap'l 27, 1724; d. June 9, 1736.
- 48. Abigail<sup>4</sup>, b. Oct. 4, 1725.
- 49. Daniel<sup>4</sup>, b. Oct. 2, 1727.

No further information has been obtained in relation to this family; they do not seem to be mentioned in any of the Pembroke records.

25.

IV. JOHN ROGERS<sup>3</sup> (Timothy<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in Marshfield; he married, December 11, 1700, Hannah Sprague, daughter of Hon. Samuel and Sarah [Chillingworth] Sprague; she died and he married (2) Sarah [Wing] Turner, widow of ——— Turner and daughter of Elisha and Mehitable [Butler] Wing of Wareham, born, May 4, 1708; she died about 1748, and he, in 1762.

Children, born in Marshfield:

By first wife:

- + 69. Hannah<sup>4</sup>, b. Feb'y 9, 1701-2.
- + 70. Sarah<sup>4</sup>, b. Sept. [Dec.] 26, 1705.
- 70a. Stephen<sup>4</sup>, b.

By second wife:

- + 49a. Elizabeth<sup>4</sup>, [Betty] b. Feb'y [Ap'l] 5, 1731.
- 49b. Daughter<sup>4</sup>, probably died young.

It is probable that there other children by the first wife, but none have been identified.

Thomas Stockbridge was appointed his Adm<sup>r</sup>, June 7, 1762; there was no real estate; the papers describe him as a tailor, as his father was before him; his estate was insolvent.

An indenture, dated Oct. 17, 1710, shows that Hannah Rogers, wife of John Rogers of Marshfield, was the daughter of Samuel and Sarah Sprague and was then living.

Several deeds from John Rogers of Marshfield, tailor, between 1710 and 1744, have been found, to none of which was his wife, Hannah, a party; among them is a deed in 1732, to his son, Stephen of Marshfield. B. XXVII, p. 180.

Deeds, one dated June 18, 1743, and one July 12, 1744, are signed by his wife, Sarah. B. XXXVIII, p. 203: B. XXXVII, p. 14.

Deed, dated Feb'y 18, 1746, but not acknowledged till Oct. 5, 1748, is signed by wife, Sarah. B. XL, p. 278.

In a deed given in 1744, he mentions his son, Stephen. B. XXXVII, p. 77.

In 1748, he conveyed land to Moses Rogers, but the deed was not acknowledged, and was proved in court in 1763, after his death; Sarah's name is not in this deed. B. XLVII, p. 227.

Stephen<sup>4</sup> has not been traced. The only mention of him that has been found, other than in his father's deeds, is in a deed from Stephen, in which his wife, Sarah, joins, to his father, "John Rogers of Marshfield, Tailor." B. XXXVI, p. 166.

There were two children by the second wife.

Phillip Turner ("son of Sarah Rogers, the wife of John Rogers, of Marshfield, and grandson to Elisha Wing") and Rebekah Jenney, daughter to Nathan Jenney and Priscilla, his wife, were married "7 mo. 7th, 1750." Sandwich Fr. Rec.

Elisha Wing of Wareham, in his will (1752) mentioned "Philip Turner, the son of my daughter, Sarah," "and the two children my daughter, Sarah, left by her husband, John Rogers," giving them one-third of his household stuff.

And Elizabeth Wing, daughter of Elisha, in her will (1756) gave a legacy to Philip Turner, son of her sister, Sarah Rogers, and also, to "Betty Hoxie, wife of Silas Hoxie, and daughter to my said sister, Sarah Rogers." Vol. XIV, p. 199, 326.

The identification of the John<sup>3</sup>, who married the widow, Sarah [Wing] Turner, was established by a deed from Betty [Rogers] Hoxie and court records, which the accidental discovery of the deed led to finding.

Betty [Rogers] Hoxie conveyed real estate which came to her as the heir of Stephen Stockbridge<sup>5</sup>, son of Thomas and Hannah [Rogers<sup>4</sup>] Stockbridge; see p. 50. How she could have been his heir, was a decided puzzle; but it was found that under the law as then existing (which was soon after changed) when a man died without children, father or mother, brothers or sisters, nephews or nieces, his surviving uncles and aunts inherited his property to the exclusion of the children of deceased uncles and aunts. The nearest relatives which Stephen left (besides Betty Hoxie) were cousins; therefore, as Betty inherited his property, she must have been his aunt, which she could be only as the half-sister of his mother, Hannah Rogers<sup>4</sup> (John<sup>3</sup>, Timothy<sup>3</sup>) and the John whom Betty's mother married, must have been Hannah's father.

3. Abigail Rogers<sup>3</sup> (No. 21, p. 26), the second wife of Thomas Parris, died, December 11, 1713, and he married for his third wife, Grace Record, January 31, 1714/15; the will of Abigail's father, dated April 10, 1716, speaks of her as then deceased; no account of Thomas Parris that I have seen mentions the third wife, but the Pembroke records have it as just stated.

4. Abel Rogers<sup>5</sup> (No. 145, p. 43) is said to have lived at Castine.

5. Thomas Tirrell (No. 62, p. 45) was born in Weymouth, July 7, 1699.

6. Ebenezer Rogers<sup>4</sup> (No. 67, p. 48). His wife was Sarah Stetson, daughter of Isaac and Elizabeth Stetson.

The estate of Hannah Berry was settled May 7, 1759; as her real estate could not be divided, her brother, Peleg Stetson, took it at the appraisal and paid "unto his mother and brothers and sisters, their ratable parts" * * * "to his mother Elizabeth Hatch & to his brothers & sisters, viz., Cornelius Stutson, John Stutson, Nathaniel Stutson, Jenne Thomas, Sarah Rogers and Mary Spear" &c. Vol. XV, p. 160.

The Pembroke records give Cornelius, Nathaniel, Jeannett, Peleg and John as children of Isaac and Elizabeth "Studson."

7. No. 86, p. 53. Rebecca Stetson<sup>6</sup> was married, Nov. 27, 1796, and Lydia<sup>6</sup> was born Feb'y 28, 1779.

8. Eunice Rogers<sup>6</sup> (No. 232, p. 61) late in life, married Levi Curtis, as his second wife.

9. Page 15, line 4. Hon. JOSEPH W. PORTER of Bangor, thinks that Elizabeth Hudson married Jonathan Vickery of Hull and Chatham.

CLERICAL AND OTHER ERRORS.

It is well known that the record of the same fact in different records (family, town or church) is not always the same, and it often is difficult to determine to which to give the preference. Persons also, especially those without experience, in copying names and dates, unconsciously make mistakes. As it was impossible for me or Miss ELLIS to examine personally all the records from which the foregoing facts were taken, or to send proofs to the different parties, I have sent out the sheets of this pamphlet to parties interested for the purpose of noting the errors. The result is that more were noted than I had expected, but very many of them were in the papers which came into the hands of the editor; while others are his, and others were printers' errors which escaped notice in reading proof.

P. 7, line 31. "Posy" and "Posye," which have heretofore been given in certified copies of this will, are now after a very careful examination, believed to be "Gorg" and "Gorge," meaning "George" which was the real name of the boy.

P. 9, line 21. "Samuel Niles" should be "Samuel Arnold"; the name on the record is almost illegible, but as Samuel Arnold was the minister at the time, the name is quite certainly "Samuel Arnall."

P. 14, line 23. For "Hannah Torrey" read "Honour Torrey."

P. 15, line 32. "Anna" is a misprint for "Annis."

P. 25, line 25. The authority for "Jeannette, second daughter," proves to be erroneous; it should be "Penelope, daughter."

P. 32, line 24. A re-examination of the record shows that "House" should be "Hewes," "Huse" or "Hughes."

P. 35, last line. "Nov. 5, 1671" should be "July 11, 1671"; some one read "11-5-1671" erroneously.

P. 39, lines 4 and 10. "1767" should be "1747," and "1740" should be "1750."

P. 40, line 12. For "Kent" read "Hunt."

P. 59, line 13. For "1863" read "1864."

P. 64, line 14. The Family Bible gives "Nov. 24, 1860," but I am satisfied that the correct date is "Nov. 20, 1859."

P. 65, line 6. For "Isaiah's" read "Israel's."

P. 71, lines 14, 15. For "Nov. 30, 1865," read "May 29, 1845."

P. 72, line 10. For "Austress" read "Anstress."

- P. 101, lines 19 and 21. For "1853" read "1863," and for "September 26, 1863" read "December 26, 1879."
- P. 104, line 21. For "Dilloway" read "Dillaway."
- P. 106, third line from bottom. For "1857" read "1897."
- P. 114, line 5. For "Belfast" read "Camden."
- P. 115, line 2. For "1880" read "1888."
- P. 115, lines 35 and 37, and p. 116, line 2. For "Wilson" and "Willson" read "Millson."
- P. 116, line 20. For "Aaron" read "Anson."
- P. 116, line 21; p. 117, lines 6, and 28, p. 118, line 2. For "Huntingdon" read "Huntington."
- P. 118, line 24. Omit "two," and line 25 for "other" read "others."
- P. 125, line 2. After "she" insert "married."
- P. 127, No. 463. For "Mary" read "Nancy."
- P. 130, line 1. For "May 15, 1804" read "August 31, 1803."
- P. 132, line 29. For "Isaac" read "Israel."
